Message Title: Voters Guide

Passage: Mark 11:27-12:27

Main Point: The most important political questions are not those we ask politicians but those Jesus asks us.

1. Read Mark 11:17-12:27 as a group. What stands out to you? What questions does it raise? How does it challenge you?
2. What would evidence that our political participation and conduct during this election season is under Jesus' authority? What would demonstrate it is not?
3. What does it mean that we are God's image-bearers? What are the implications of that for our political participation.
4. How should knowing that people we disagree with politically are God's image-bearers change the way we see them and treat them during this election season?
5. Why do you think we are tempted to prefer and seek political power over God's power? What are the differences between the two?
6. What did God say to you this week through this passage. How will you apply it
